Arriving to Friday's Conference Venue

From Glasgow International Airport

The airport bus, the Glasgow Flyer (no. 500) leaves every 10 minutes from the front of the airport (stance 1). (It is a small airport so you should have no trouble finding the stop). Tickets can be bought on the bus for £14.00 return or £8.50 for a single journey. Get off at Queen Street Station: the driver normally shouts out the stops and Queen Street is the stop which comes after Central Station. Queen Street is shown on the map.

To return to the airport, there are bus stops on North Hanover Street or on the south side of George Square. You can also go to Buchanan Street Bus Station where the bus departs from.

From Prestwick Airport

The airport has a train station, with frequent services to Glasgow Central Station. See airport website.

From Central Station

Trains from English destinations arrive here. It is about a 10-15 minute walk to the TIC, or you can get a taxi (£3-4). If you walk, head in the direction of Queen Street Station and George Square. Diagonally across the middle is quickest and then continue for 3 minutes on George Street. Location maps are dotted around the area.

From Queen Street Station

18:30 Last Session Ends

19:30 Conference Dinner: Mackintosh at the Willow (please aim to arrive by 19:15)

Arriving to Saturday's Conference Venue

From Glasgow City Centre

Subway:

The nearest Subway stations (a short walk away) to the ARC are Hillhead or Kelvinhall Stations (shown on the map). You can arrive at these from any of the City's Subway stations (the Glasgow underground is one circle, which runs in both directions). Tickets for single and return journeys can be bought inside the Subway.

Bus: The Number 2 serves routes from the City Centre to ARC. The nearest stop, Bunhouse Road, is a 5-minute walk (shown on the map)

Taxi: You can hail a cab outside of Central and Queen Street station areas or use private hire such as Uber or Glasgow Taxis (using their downloadable apps). A taxi ride from the city centre to the ARC is approximately £7-8.

Arriving to Saturday's Dinner

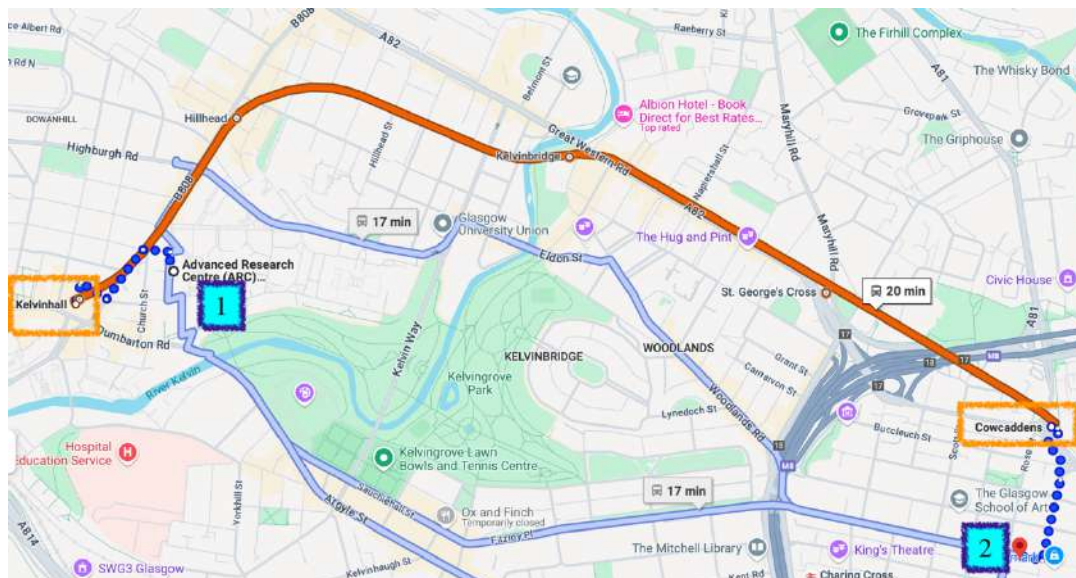

From the Conference Venue

Subway:

Using Hillhead or Kelvinhall stations, the nearest Subway station to the restaurant is Cowcaddens a 5-minute walk away (shown on the map). Tickets for single and return journeys can be bought inside the Subway.
